ACADEMIC HONESTY 2011-2012

Academic honesty is fundamental to the integrity and operation of our school. Acts of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism (the act of presenting others' words and ideas as one's own without crediting the source), stealing in quizzes and tests, copying work from other students or allowing their own work to be copied, or using notes during a test, are considered serious offences.

The consequences of academic dishonesty will be a zero grade on the specific test/assignment, and additional disciplinary action. The said student will be ineligible or removed from the National Honor Society.

For students in grades 9 – 12, disciplinary actions will be:

1st offense: Warning and parents will be notified by the teacher.
(The incident will be recorded by the teacher and reported to the student's Advisor and Director).

2nd offense: In-house suspension.

3rd offense: Two days in-house suspension.

Further offenses: Suspension or a recommendation for expulsion from school.

IN-HOUSE SUSPENSION

The in-house suspension program is an alternative to home suspensions. Students will be separated from the remainder of the student body for a day and may not participate in any extracurricular activities. They will be required to complete all assigned work under continuous supervision. Inappropriate behavior during this time will result in home suspension.
